

I am very concerned about the future ruling by the FCC on media cross ownership. Lifting the current restrictions will surely signal the demise of free speech in the media as we know it. I also find it to be a conflict of interest that the Secretary of State's son is the Chair of the Commision and wonder what administration pressures and influences he is operating under.